LOCAL NEWS

MY TAILOR, representing Kahn Bros., will be with me Jan. 13 and 14, taking measures for Spring suits. I guarantee perfect fit. J. A. Hildreth.

Meers, Willis and John Gibson, of Waldring, spent several days here last week.

Mr. Sam'l Johnson, of Yorkville, spent Wednesday night with Mr. W. R. Brown.

Chester Chapter "D. C." will meet with Miss Annie Hardin Monday, Jan. 12th, at 4 o'clock.

Mr. James and Miss Ida Brown, of Whittemore, spent two or three days this week at Mr. W. R. Brown's.

Miss Gertha Henderson, of Atlanta, who has been visiting Mrs. J. R. Reid, near Bloeburg, went home Monday.

TO ARRIVE—In a few days a car of eating potatoes; also a car of N. S. Flour and sugar. Price and quality guaranteed. Reed & Crenshaw.

Mrs. Amelia Wise and daughter, Annie Jordan, of Atlanta, came in Wednesday night to visit her children and friends.

Misses Cecil and Katie Miller, of the Pleasant Grove neighborhood, went to Winnsboro yesterday to visit friends.

BLACK MARE MULE FOUND—Owner can get same by calling at Sam's Stable and paying extreme price.

The Rev. D. S. Miller has been assigned to the Glenn Springs circuit this year, but he will still live in Chester.

Mr. L. E. Gibson and son, Clarence, returned home Sunday after spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Brooks on Columbia street.

SKATING at the rink on Tuesday and Friday nights from 7:30 to 10:30 have been thoroughly enjoyed.

Mr. W. Mayfield, who is a weather observer of long experience, said he thought yesterday morning the cold morning of the winter thus far.

There were dissenting opinions.

The Rev. C. F. McDonald was called to Winnsboro again last Saturday to conduct the funeral of Mr. John B. Caldwell, who died in the state hospital in Columbia at an advanced age.

FAMILY HORSE for sale. Young and not afraid of fire or automobiles. Children drive best. S. C. Carter.

Mr. Barry B. Mobley, the survivor of Kershaw's recent double tragedy, continues to improve. The bullet which entered his shoulder was removed a few days ago.—Advertiser News.

Mrs. J. G. Dury left yesterday for Baltimore. She was strongly attached to Chester and was loath to concede the fact that bound her pleasant associations. Her regrets, however, were no deeper than those of her many friends.

The conflict at the opera house last night, under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce, was attended by a good house and all were highly pleased. It was a fine show, and when the club announced another attraction it will doubtless meet a good response.

TO ARRIVE—Letter each of yesterday of Winnsboro, where the temperature was 20 below zero. Very dry. Prices and quality guaranteed. Reed & Crenshaw.

Mrs. W. J. W. Corwell died.

Mrs. W. J. W. Corwell, wife of Dr. Corwell, of Cornwall, died at an early hour this morning. Her death was sudden and was probably caused by heart trouble. Her only child is Mr. A. E. Holler. The funeral and burial will be at Pleasant Grove church tomorrow at 11 o'clock.

RODOLPH'S

Preaching at New Bethel.

There will be preaching at New Bethel Baptist church, Sunday, Jan. 12th, at 11 a. m. by the new pastor, Rev. J. H. Peasley.

County Pension Board.

The pension board of Chester county met on Monday, the 6th inst., and organized by electing J. W. Wilks chairman, W. H. Edwards secretary and commissioner and W. B. Cox, M. D., surgeon. The board will meet again on Saturday, the 18th inst., at 11 a. m.

Mr. Jasper Grant Dead.

Mr. Jasper N. Grant died yesterday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. E. Wilson, on Route No. 1. He had something like dropsy and had been in bad health for some time, though he worked a small farm last year. He was 71 years old last June. The burial will be at Armenta today.

A Handsome Business.

Mr. W. J. Simpson, who buys cotton in Chester for Alexander Sprout's Sons, of Wilmington, has bought this season about 15,000 bales, chiefly Chester county cotton. A feature of his purchase is that he likes it that they have been steady and comparatively uniform from day to day. The Sprouts do a high class, clean business. All their cotton is exported.

Rev. C. L. Fowler at Washaw.

Rev. C. L. Fowler will lecture at Washaw Institute tonight (Thursday, January 9th) at 7:30 o'clock on the above subject. His lecture will deal mostly with the first one hundred years of Christian history. Mr. Fowler is just home from a tour of Europe. He spent much time in Rome and around the Mediterranean Sea studying old ruins, old jails, colosseums, amphitheatres, catacombs and the early haunts of the martyr Christians.—Washaw Enterprise.

Negro's Wounds Prove Fatal.

Grafton Sanders, alias Blewitt Beales, colored, who was shot at Wilksburg Saturday evening, died Tuesday afternoon. An inquest was held over the body yesterday afternoon, and the jury with Mr. John R. Page as foreman, brought in the following verdict: "That the said Grafton Sanders came to his death from gunshot wounds in the hands of a party or parties unknown to the jury."

Mr. Paul Wilks, who is charged with the shooting, came to the city yesterday afternoon, and after a conference with his attorney, Mr. S. E. McFadden, was turned over to deputy sheriff Feden.

Chester People Best.

Mr. E. G. Glimmer, of Stateville N. C., called at The Lantern office this morning. He is proprietor of two hotels in Stateville and manager of Catawba Springs, and he says he feels almost as well acquainted in Chester as at home. He wishes us to say in The Lantern that of the thousands of people he has entertained in his hotel experiences, the Chester people are the best he has ever had anything to do with. They are the easiest to please and all around the best people he knows. He wished to get ground to see all his acquaintances, but could see only a limited number. He extends greetings to all.

Court House Poetry.

Treasurer W. O. Guy this week posted on his office door this notice: "Office closed until the auditor adds the penalty."

The court house poet came along and added the following:

Tax time is out you can bet.
You'll have to wait and not forget.
That Hood is out in all this rain,
And don't you know it's against his grain?

But he'll smoke and eat and chew his cud,
But he'll not get stuck up in the mud.
He'll come get through with his returns
And shaking hands with Johnnie Burns.

And then there's nothing to prevent
His adding on the one per cent.
Then wrap up these are solid facts
Guy'll be here to receive your tax.

But if they are a pack of lies
No telling when you'll see his eyes.

A Revival.

Dear Readers of The Lantern: We had a revival our hearts at Book Hill in a new Baptist church near the Park mill. Those concerned will read 7th and 8th chapters of Romans. The harvest is truly plentiful but the laborers are few. Then on Jan. 5th we had prayer service at Catawba school house. Rev. Jones will preach there every Sabbath Sunday, or many if you will come out. So may God bless the efforts at home and abroad.

A Veteran for the Lord.

Wall Paper

We do the largest Wall Paper business in Chester. One year ago this month we inaugurated this department. Began by buying in car load quantities, and from the start gave you people bottom prices. We buy direct from the factories and sell you wall paper at what most dealers in this city pay for theirs. Klutz can save you one-half on your Wall Paper bill and furnish you better paper, to. Your spring shipment, which took nearly two railroad box cars to convey to us, has just arrived. We invite the attention of paperhangers, agents and dealers. Our prices are cheaper than you can purchase it from any jobber in America.

LOT NO. 1—Wall Paper at 5 cents the roll; paper other stores sell at 10 cents. Extra heavy and magnificent designs.

LOT NO. 2—A lovely grade of Gift Wall Paper. Others get 15 and 20 cents for this paper. Klutz price 7 1/2 cents the roll. This is great value.

LOT NO. 3—A superb assortment of Varnished Gold Parlor Wall Paper. Most excellent value. Sold elsewhere at 24 cents the roll. Klutz price only 10 cents the roll.

VARNISHED TREES—The only Wall Paper suitable for bedrooms and is used extensively for kitchens, vestibules and halls. Sold everywhere at 25 cents the roll. Klutz price 17 1/2 cents the roll.
